Year's Text: Isaiah 61:4-7
Date: Sunday, April 14, 2024

Text: Isaiah 61:7

“For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.”

For your shame you shall have double...

Shame is indeed a curse.

Define shame:

- a painful feeling of humiliation or distress caused by the consciousness of wrong or foolish behavior.
- a feeling of embarrassment that arises from having done something dishonorable, immoral or improper.

The aim of shame is multi-dimensional:

1. To demean or to diminish
2. To extract self worth.
3. To make you and the act committed by you one in the same.
4. To create a veil around you so that that you cannot:
 - A. See clearly.
 - B. Prevent others from seeing you clearly.

This garment of shame projects to others:

- Unworthiness
- Mistreat me
- Handle me as you please.
- Please don't notice me.

Shame vs. Repentance

Shame is a negative response to a negative action.

Repentance is a positive response to a negative action.

Shame is broken off from your life!
