Tribe Homework

After completing your family tree, go back and place each person in the older generations in a category. You can use multiple categories for each person.

Categories:

- Proximity to you (close, somewhat close or distant)
- Professional status (what they did for a living)
- Personality type/traits (nice, hard, kind, moody, etc...)
- Personal commitment to their Faith (proclaimed Christ or unsaved)
- Physical health and/or mental status (sicknesses, depression, active or non-active)

After completing the older generations, make notes for the generations younger than you using the same categories as the older persons.

Finally, how do you describe yourself and in which categories do you see similarities from the generations before and after you?
